CANDIDATE FIT SUMMARY
Pradeep V is a software engineer specializing in AI/ML, currently at MajorDomo Inc. (formerly Tailwinds.AI) where he works with Python, FastAPI, LlamaIndex, generative AI, large language models, Pinecone, MongoDB, and OpenAI API. His recent responsibilities include integrating vector databases and building AI-driven services, indicating hands-on experience with retrieval-augmented generation (RAG) pipelines and evaluation of LLM outputs. He holds an integrated MSc in Theoretical Computer Science from PSG College of Technology (CGPA 7.66). His background aligns with an agentic QA architect role that requires designing, implementing, and assessing RAG-based
